

The Refractive Thinker® Press

Good morning colleagues:

We are once again looking ahead to the next edition of the trademarked series: The Refractive Thinker®.

With the popularity of our 5-time award winning series, we will be offering the next volume for Summer 2012 publication, Volume VII: Social Responsibility.

With the global reach of The Refractive Thinker® Family, please forward this email and invite your colleagues and doctoral graduates to submit their abstracts via email (drcheryllentz@gmail.com) for consideration.

We will begin accepting abstracts beginning March 1st to obtain the minimum of 12 chapters. Again, the focus is on the topic of social responsibility.

This publication includes a Peer Review Board with both a content editor and an editor who specializes in APA format for review. In addition, there will also be a Refractive Thinker®: Volume VII Advisory Panel.

Our business model is very simple as participating authors share the (1) expense of publication, as well as (2) promotion. Will you be in the next edition? Come join us!

Thank you for sharing with your networks. Updates to all social media will be available shortly.

Cheers!

Cheryl
